

A high-quality photograph of a Porterhouse steak, which is a large cut of beef with a T-bone in the center. The steak is cooked to a medium-rare doneness, showing a pink interior and a dark, seared exterior. It is garnished with a fresh rosemary sprig. The steak is served on a dark, round wooden cutting board. In the background, a bottle of wine with a red label and a black foil-wrapped cork is visible. The entire scene is set against a dark, textured background, possibly a slate or stone surface.
